

Interactive comment on “In-flight calibration of Hot Ion Analyser onboard Cluster” by A. Blagau et al.

G. Paschmann (Referee)

goetz.paschmann@mpe.mpg.de

Received and published: 21 November 2013

The paper presents a description of the methodology for and the results of the in-flight calibration of the Hot Ion Analyzer portion of the CIS ion plasma instrument on the Cluster mission. This calibration promises to improve the accuracy of the HIA data products. A first glance shows that the methodology is sound and that the results are well-described.

Interactive comment on Geosci. Instrum. Method. Data Syst. Discuss., 3, 407, 2013.

C211