A VLF/LF facility network for preseismic electromagnetic investigations

Response to the referees' remarks

We would like to thank the referees for their evaluation work. In the new version of the manuscript:

 (1) The introduction has been extended to better present the method;

 (2) A new Figure 2 displays two photos showing the antenna and reception system;

 (3) Section 4 has been improved;

 (4) Clarifications have been made in Section 5;

 (5) New references have been included throughout the manuscript.
